FIREMEN EXPECT HUGE TURNOUT FOR BIG PARADE

Sixty-Six Companies Have Accepted Invitation To Participate

$1500 IN CASH PRIZES

More Than 20 Bands Are Expected To Be In The Line of March

PERKASIE, June 10—The communities of Perkassie and Sellersville will be joint hosts this evening and tomorrow, to the Bucks County Firemen's Association upon the occasions of the annual meeting and the annual parade. The meeting will be held this evening and the parade tomorrow.

The business session will be held in Sell-Perk high school on Friday evening. Both the Firemen's group and the County Ladies' Auxiliary will hold their annual sessions in different rooms of the big school building.

Highlighting the business session will be the election of officers. William Stackhouse, president of the Association for many years, declined re-election and at the quarterly meeting in March two candidates were named for the post. The candidates are Lloyd Crouthamel, of the Dublin Company and Ralph K. Wassner of the Chalfont Company. John J. Laughlin, deputy chief of the Philadelphia Bureau of Fire will be the speaker.

James Schatz, Perkassie police officer, who is chairman of the parade committee this morning said that 66 fire companies had accepted invitations to participate in the parade. "This means," said Schatz "that there will be at least 100 pieces of apparatus in line." In addition to fire companies and ladies auxiliaries there will be more than twenty bands, the Bucks County Rescue Squad and the Bucks-Mont riding club. According to estimates there will be between 2500 and 3000 paraders in the line of march.

Seven of the more than 66 fire companies that have accepted invitation come from New Jersey. Many Montgomery county companies will be here and Pen Argyl too has accepted an invitation.

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Eleven young women were presented diplomas at the 23rd annual commencement at Holmquist School New Hope, Monday. Presiding at the exercises was Charles Johnson, headmaster of the school.

Dr. Blanche Norton, who has been a member of the faculty since the beginning of the school, gave the principal address.

Diplomas were presented by Mr. Johnson and Miss Louise Lee, dean of the school.

Dr. J. Edward Smith, supervising principal of Doylestown school, has reported on the census as recently completed by Mrs. Frank X. Shelley. It reveals 1,227 children ranging in age from one year to 18, born here since 1939.

Mrs. Shelley, who practically completed the census, with the exception of making a few more calls to homes on persons who were not in, reports the banner year for babies was 1947 when 109 were born.

Dr. Smith, who said the total number will be somewhere around 1,254, including those born this year, reported that evidently Doylestown is a baby boom town.

Donna Antonette Grandi Lodge, No. 1634, will hold a special meeting, Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

An event of vast importance to the residents of this and surrounding communities took place on Wednesday, June 1st, when Life Scout Calvin Morrison of Troop 69, Croydon, and Joan Anderson of Girl Scout Troop No. 7, Croydon, picked for their excellence in the scouting movement, joined David Sklar, president, Milton Richter, vice-president, and Samuel Silbert, general manager of the Safe Food Markets, in breaking ground for the new super market they plan to build in Croydon.

The Safe Food Market interests plan to erect the largest, most modern food market and shoppers' center, with 10 complete departments under one roof to make it a one-stop shopping center. It will be of the latest design, with parking space for more than 200 automobiles, they state.

Mr. Sklar, when asked, stated that the most modern methods will be employed for shopping comfort, with the usual staff of schooled and efficient employees. In a statement Sklar said: "It has always been the policy of the Safe Food Markets, its officers and purchasing agents, to bring to the public the largest variety of nationally-advertised brands and the highest quality food products at the lowest possible prices, and it has always been the policy of the Safe Food Markets to be the leaders in the field wherever they now operate. ELOQUENT NONSENSE

The lengthy Report of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, submitted as part of its recommendation for approval of the Atlantic Pact, is about as absurd and illogical as any public document ever released.

If this were a minor issue, the nonsense would make little difference.

But this Report covers a subject of vast world importance. It calls for tying Uncle Sam into a transoceanic alliance totally different from anything ever tried before, for purposes made more mysterious than ever by the Report, with liabilities harder to understand than ever—and binding this nation to the alliance for the next twenty years, come what may. (As the Report itself states, "There is no provision for individual members to withdraw prior to that time.")

If for no other reason than to prevent future arguments and misunderstandings, the Report ought to have been crystal clear. It ought to have had no ambiguities, no self-contradictions, no political double-talk. But it is full of these.

It presents numerous "reservations" to the Atlantic Pact—not as they should be, definite reservations incorporated in the Pact itself, but as mere "interpretations" having no definite standing. They are nothing more than neat "alibis" which those can use who privately disapprove the Atlantic Pact, but hesitate to vote against it.

If these "reservations" are to be taken seriously, then the Pact itself is largely meaningless.

Consider the list of points where the Senate Committee says the Pact does NOT bind the United States. Here are the principal fields where the Report says this nation does not have to implement the pact with laws or action:

A. The U. S. is not obligated to "take specific legislative action" in the fields of "civil rights, the reduction of tariffs, and similar matters."

B. It is not committed "to contribute toward a long-term recovery program for Europe."

The services will include: 8:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 9:45, Church School; 11, morning prayer and sermon by the Rev. Mr. Powell.

On Wednesday there will be Holy Communion at 8:30 a. m.

The Rev. Mr. Powell, who comes from Bryn Mawr, is to be minister-in-charge of Christ Church, Eddington, and St. Paul's Church, Edgely.

The Rev. Mr. Powell was ordained at St. Asaph's Church, Bala-Cynwyd, on May 14th, at a service attended by representatives of the congregations both of Eddington and Edgely. He was graduated from the Virginia Theological Seminary with the degree of bachelor in divinity. As a seminarian he served as student assistant at St. Mark's Church, Washington, D. C. During the past summer the Rev. Mr. Powell was in training as a chaplain interne in the Department of Justice at the Federal Reformatory in El Reno, Okla. He has also had experience as a hospital chaplain.

Before entering the ministry, the Rev. Mr. Powell served in the U. S. Navy in the Atlantic, Mediterranean and Pacific areas. He served for a time as assistant group commander in charge of engineering and salvage and later became a tactical radar officer. For a time he served on the faculty with the position of instructor in the Department of Public Speaking, and was acting director of the speech clinic at the University of Virginia for a year.

Men, women, and children of all ages, and from all communities for miles about, are expected to throng the parking lot. They will come by buses, bicycles, afoot and in private automobiles. For those choosing the latter means of transportation, ample parking space will be provided on the section of the parking lot not reserved for the entertainment, or on nearby streets.

Bristol has long been working toward an improved parking lot. The plot has been used for some time, but just recently has surfaced taken place. It is an event worth celebrating, and residents will "whoop it up" on Thursday.

Juvenile Delinquency Is A Menace to Society

"Juvenile delinquency is a menace and a threat to the future of our society, and has passed far beyond the stage where it is a community problem to where it is now reached the proportions of a national problem," the Rev. George E. Boswell, rector of St. James' P. E. Church, told Rotarians when he addressed them at the ELKS Home yesterday afternoon.

"We must somehow or other impress on the parents that children are taught far more effectively by example rather than by precept, if we are to conquer the problem," the speaker continued.

"Obedience to the laws and the practice of Christian living must be shown to our youth to be privileges rather than compulsory duties."

"The real root of the problem lays in the home. Parents are to a very large degree responsible for the juvenile delinquency of today."

"Broken homes resulting from the recent war also added to the problem, as has the introduction of jazz music, thriller motion pictures and comic strips showing shootings and killings, etc.," Rev. Boswell declared.

Guests were present for the meeting from Morrisville and Bensalem, with Ray Sobatzki acting as chairman.

EXPECT LARGE CROWD AT CELEBRATION HERE

Mill Street Frolic Likely To Exceed V-E Day Event

ALL AGES ARE INVITED

General belief is that the celebration on Bristol borough's new parking lot on the evening of June 16th will surpass the spontaneous demonstration which occurred on Mill street on V-E Day.

Although the affair of a few years ago included music, dancing and a gala time, the event of next Thursday will call for these and more—a show staged by the Sleepy Hollow Gang and Free cats.

Men, women, and children of all ages, and from all communities for miles about, are expected to throng the parking lot. They will come by buses, bicycles, afoot and in private automobiles. For those choosing the latter means of transportation, ample parking space will be provided on the section of the parking lot not reserved for the entertainment, or on nearby streets.

SCOUTS TO CONDUCT JAMBOREE IN 1950 AT VALLEY FORGE

Troops To Come From All Over America To Big Event

EXPECT OVER 30,000

Event Will Climax Two-Year Crusade of Scouts

The Boy Scouts of America has selected Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, for its second National Scout Jamboree in 1950, according to word received by the Bucks County Council, Boy Scouts of America, whose headquarters are at Doylestown. The selection of the site was announced by Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the organization.

Over 30,000 Boy Scouts from every state and all U. S. territories will camp together from June 30 to July 6, 1950 on the site notable as the winter encampment of General George Washington and his Continental Army from Dec. 19, 1777 to June 19, 1778.

Valley Forge Park is owned, maintained and preserved by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. An invitation to hold the Jamboree there was received from Governor James H. Duff by the Boy Scouts of America and accepted by its National Executive Board, Dr. Schuck announced.

The National Jamboree will be the climax of the Boy Scouts' two-year Crusade to "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty."

Gov. Duff's invitation to the Boy Scouts was accepted after a dozen sites in all sections of the United States were inspected by the Engineering Service of the Boy Scouts of America.

Gov. Duff's invitation addressed to Dr. Schuck follows:

"On behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Valley Forge Park Commission, I wish to extend to the Boy Scouts of America a cordial invitation to hold their Jamboree at Valley Forge Park during the summer of 1950 at such time as their executives may elect."

"I am fully acquainted with the Boy Scouts' program for the year 1950—to 'Crusade to Strengthen the Arm of Liberty'—and it was my privilege last February in an address at Gettysburg to sponsor this crusade for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I can visualize no more appropriate location for its climax than Valley Forge where the sacrifice and training were undergone on the basis of which our heritage of liberty was won."

Exchange Club Conditions Field for Aeromodelers

The Bristol Exchange Club, sponsors of the "Aeromodelers," has approved of a donation of funds to condition the ground recently purchased by the Bristol School Board near Route 13, for a permanent flying site. Work will soon get under way by the Bucks County Construction Co.

Through the efforts of Thomas Stricker and Lester Michael such a thing was made possible. Aeromodeler members are very anxious to use the new field, and a public demonstration will be given as soon as the new field is made usable.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

Mr. Chambers is attempting to tell us what makes American Communism tick but it still sounds like loose balance wheels and no pendulum.

Vishinsky and Gromyko can make Communism sound errorless but with the American brand it comes out mostly erotic, erratic and eroding.

In fact the propaganda spreaders in our capitalist cities probably wouldn't be entrusted with the fertilizer spreader on a collectivist farm.

One way to test this theory would be to send Stalin a cable reading "We have a number of red-hot Reds here... how many will you take, freight paid?"

The answer probably would read "What are you trying to do... wreck Communism here?"

Anyway Stalin may be guilty of a lot of things but I don't recall him ever writing dirty little pieces for soiled little papers.

EDITORIALS OVER THE AIR

Radio stations have now been granted the right to say their say on public questions. The Federal Communications Commission has modified its long-standing position, set forth in the "Mayflower Decision," that they must be silent on "partisan" issues. It has decided they may take sides provided they also carry a "reasonably balanced" presentation of opposing views.

This is a victory for the National Association of Broadcasters, which has insisted for years that the commission's ruling was a denial of station owners' constitutional rights. But it may represent a defeat for their own best interests in the long run.

Radio stations deal in entertainment and information. It seems reasonable to argue that they should be free, as newspapers are, to advocate political causes. But the conclusion is based on a dubious premise because radio stations, unlike newspapers must be and are licensed by a government agency.

Given the right to editorialize, can station owners be expected to forget the partisan views of members of the government agency that grants licenses?

The new ruling is now a complete departure from the commission's former stand. There is an "if" that can lead to difficulties, for a station failing to meet the commission's concept of reasonable balance can lose its license. Moreover, what would happen if the commission should seek nationwide balance between Republican and Democratic station owners?

There are all kinds of possibilities for trouble in the new ruling. Still, it may be that the bad potentialities will not appear and the net will be good.

BUT NOT INFALLIBLE

A handsome man in a tall silk hat and scarlet coat moves to the microphone. The lights go out everywhere except in the center ring now flooded with brilliance. In the dim tiers of seats the multitude is hushed. A baritone voice fills the great circus tent.

"And now, ladies and gentlemen, I give you, direct from Paris the in-tre-pid—the in-vin-ci-ble—the in-com-pa-ra-ble—the in-cred-i-ble GERALDOS!" The Geraldos, said the program, "twice daily shake dice with death."

Up to the high trapeze they climb, barelegged, barefooted, dressed in bits of shimmering white. Now high above the tanbark—no net intervening—they go into their act. On the single trapeze he swings her up, over and down. By her hands he swings her and by her feet. Or again, she catches his ankles as he swings by his hands.

Another evolution begins. They swing like a pendulum.

But in Baltimore the Geraldos fell from their trapeze. Rene's ankle is broken. Madeline's back injury is serious. Intrepid, almost incredible they are. But—like other human beings in other ways—even the Geraldos are not infallible.

The roller skating contest for both boys and girls will be held on Radcliffe street on Tuesday afternoon, sponsored by the Bristol Rotary club. Prizes will be awarded, and all boys and girls are to appear ready to skate on Tuesday afternoon. Watch Monday's Courier for the time of the races.

Here and There Bucks County Towns

Doylstown's school population will be quite heavy for some years ahead. Doylstown school board, which authorized the taking of the census in order to give the Central Bucks Joint School Board some idea of the future school population, is one of eight districts making this survey.

Other members of the Central Bucks Junior-Senior High School set-up include Chalfont and New Britain Boroughs, New Britain, Warrington, Doylstown, Buckingham and Plumstead townships who will make similar surveys.

Of the 39 Bucks county boys who have been selected to attend Camp Penn, the four Doylstown youths are as follows: Harry Beer, Walter Evans, Albert Rutherford and Aaron Leap.

County Superintendent Charles H. Boehm announced that the 39 boys will attend the recreational camp at Indiantown Gap from July 14 to 29th, at the expense of the State. The boys have been chosen because they have been deemed good citizens and worthy of an award.

Scouts To Hold Jamboree In 1950 At Valley Forge

"You may be assured of the full cooperation of the Commonwealth and its agencies. The Valley Forge Park Commission will make available the facilities it has at its disposal during the period of preparation. Should your National Executive Board accept this invitation, the Valley Forge Park Commission will be designated as the coordinating agency of the Commonwealth with which you should develop your detailed plans in so far as they involve the Commonwealth."

Boy Scout officials announced that the Jamboree camp will probably occupy 600 of the 2,923 acres in Valley Forge Park. This would provide 32 sectional camps for a maximum of 40,320 Scouts and adult leaders and a headquarters camp for 400 leaders. Valley Forge Park is 20 miles northwest of Philadelphia and seven miles west of Norristown.

The first National Scout Jamboree was held in a 450 acre tent city on both sides of the Potomac River at Washington, D. C., from June 20 to July 9, 1937 at the invitation of President Franklin D. Roosevelt. It brought together 27,232 Scouts and Leaders whose fees paid for the expenses of the entire Jamboree. President Roosevelt not only visited the huge Jamboree Camp but took part in the "Stand Still Parade" in his honor on Constitution Avenue. The Scout campers lined the entire length of the historic avenue and were reviewed by the President as he drove between their lines.

Boy Scouts of twenty-four other nations were guests of the encampment.

Pulitzer Prize-Winning Author Addresses Ass'n

DOYLESTOWN, June 10 — With James A. Michener, of Tincum township, Pulitzer prize winning author, as speaker, the 54th annual meeting of the Doylestown Village Improvement Association was held Tuesday when 187 women attended the luncheon in the Doylestown Country Club.

Mr. Michener, who was presented by Mrs. Earl D. Blair with whom he attended high school, here, delighted the women with his "off the record" talk about successful people in the literary world, show business, radio, television and famed figures whose names are legendary in the average American family.

Mrs. Fred F. Martin, who served as the mistress of ceremonies, presented four past presidents, Mrs. Calvin S. Boyer, Mrs. Isaac J. Van Ardsden, Miss Helen Ryan and Mrs. James M. Shellenberger.

Mrs. Hannah H. Pollock, who served as the V. I. A. nurse for many years but is now in retirement, received an ovation when she was presented by President Martin.

Mrs. Walter Stocklin, Deep Run, Bismarck township, who nursed in five states in various hospitals during World War II, said: "For its size and type the Emergency Hospital is the friendliest and most efficiently run hospital I have ever been in."

It was decided by the clubwomen to give $50 to the Swartzlander Community House to be used towards buying furnishings.

Mengel Moon Beige Mahogany Modernized 18th Century Traditional

Out of the long-ago . . . out of the romantic 1700's and a great period in furniture design, comes the delicacy and daintiness of the Moon Beige Mahogany group. And out of Mengel's magical color palette comes the striking new finish tone . . . like a sparkle of the new moon . . . a warm beige dusted with gold . . . a true blond mahogany that sets the note of contemporary living, while the graceful lines and finely detailed carving seem reminiscent of that lady-in-the-locket look.

SPENCERS has a complete Moon Beige collection at a price as pleasing to your purse as Moon Beige's appearance is to your pride. A basic group consisting of Dresser, Mirror, Bed, and Chest costs only

VOLTZ NINE MOVES INTO A DEADLOCK FOR FIRST PLACE

Voltz-Texaco moved into a deadlock with West Bristol for first place in the Bristol Suburban League with a 6-2 win over the Hibernians last evening on Leedom's field.

The tilt was a scoreless hurling duel between "Bill" McGerr, for the gasmen, and Joe McDevitt, for the Hibs, until the fifth frame when the Voltz-men scored three times. It was Dave Morrell who started the rally with a single to left. He was forced at second by Dave Ludwig. Ludwig stole second and crossed the plate on Dewsnap's hit to left. Dewsnap eventually scored when Sid Purcell rapped a double over the rightfielder's head. Pappaterra's long single to center counted Purcell.

The Hibs got a run back on McDevitt's hit to center, an error by Pappaterra on Cahill's grounder, and a hit by "Johnny" Rodgers. McGerr fanned the next batter and purposely passed Cooper to load the bases. Dolan popped up to first to end the inning.

Earl Cross gave the gasmen a run in the sixth when he socked a tremendous blow to left-center for a home run.

McDevitt was driven from the mound in the next inning and "Norm" Hetherington finished.

ST. JAMES' DEFEATS ST. LUKE'S; SCORE, 8-5

A combination of bad breaks and errors lost a ball game for St. Luke last evening as St. James scored 2 unearned runs and 2 more on a misjudged fly ball that went for a home run with a man on second.

Both teams had nine hits with Schwank and Meyerle getting 2 hits for the losers and DeLong and Norman Vandegrift obtaining 2 base knocks for the winners. The game was loosely played with fluke hits dropping in for singles all evening.

The fielding gem of the game was a back-handed stop of a ground ball by Tranter to save 2 St. Luke runs from scoring in the fifth inning.

SIX RUNS IN SIXTH GIVE FLANNERY'S WIN

PENNDLE, June 10 — Six runs in the sixth gave Flannery's Eagles a 9-6 victory over the Lewis Lodge of Elks last evening in a Bristol Suburban League game on the Penndel field.

The six tallies were scored on two walks, hits by Tom Purcell, Frank Purcell, Vic Rockhill and Clint Purcell and an error.

Prior to the six-run flare-up, the Elks were out in front by a 5-3 lead and Pollard seemed to coasting to victory. But the sixth frame proved fatal and cost the Bristol team the victory.

"Tommy" Purcell had three for three to lead the batters of the game while "Wee" Ringgold, for the losers, had a double and triple. The winners had ten hits.

MANHATTAN DEFEATS 3M'S BY SCORE OF 8-2

Ray Pierandozzi's relief pitching helped the Manhattan Soap team to beat the 3 M's last evening on the Hunter-Wilson field on an Industrial Softball League game.

Due to the absence of its regular starting pitcher, Manhattan appeared weakened but Quinn and Pierandozzi ably filled the position and set back their opponents with five hits.

Both "Angie" Spinelli and Gallagher came out of their batting slumps by getting two out of four. One of Gallagher's blows was a homer in the fourth with Ralph Kratz on base.

Third Anniversary Is Marked by Rainbow Girls

The third anniversary of Bristol Assembly, No. 22, Order of Rainbow Girls, marked Wednesday evening at a dinner held in the social hall of Bristol Methodist Church.

Favors were book markers with the Lord's Prayer inscribed on a square attached to a tassel. The other tables were decorated with vari-colored roses.

Mrs. George Bailey, Jr., presented the assembly with a decorated cake. Installation followed the dinner. She was presented with red roses from seven "how" girls. Her mother, Mrs. Lester D. Thorne, pinned a past officers' jewel on Louise. The new worthy advisor, Alverta McGarity, was escorted through a candlelight ceremony, passing the stations of Faith, Hope and Charity, receiving a handkerchief doll at each station symbolizing that station. She also received a bouquet of roses as Shirley Hall sang to her "We love you, Louise M. Grauden, both of Philadelphia." Mrs. Combs was escorted to the altar where Louise Thorne

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

NEARLY every housewife has been—or will be—confronted at some time in her career with the task of preparing dinner for a large number of people. If, in addition, she is also anxious to display her culinary skills by serving a meal featuring a rare combination of flavors, the job is doubly complicated. For such an occasion, and bearing in mind that reasonable economy is always a welcome guest at such times, the A & P Service for Home makers suggests filling away this recipe for stuffed pork shoulder for future reference. Of course, by reducing the ingredients proportionately, it may also be used for a normal-sized family.

Have a four-pound picnic pork shoulder boned and sew it on three sides before preparing the stuffing. To make this, combine one cup of bread crumbs, two tablespoons of melted fat, ten cooked and diced prunes, three tart apples, quartered, one teaspoon of grated lemon rind, one-half teaspoon of brown sugar, one-quarter teaspoon of cinnamon, plus salt and pepper.

Before filling opening with this stuffing, season pork well with pepper and salt. Then stuff and sew up remaining opening. Cook in an uncovered roasting pan in moderate (350°F.) oven, allowing 35 or 40 minutes to the pound. This should serve 12 adequate portions.

As an appetizer, serve chilled pineapple juice cocktails. With the main course, mashed sweet potato, caramel and a salad of grapefruit and pimiento are appropriate. A dessert of apple tapioca pudding and suitable beverages will provide a fitting climax for this fine meal.

ST. ANN'S LOSES TO POLISH FALCONS BY 10-9 SCORE

TRENTON, June 10 — The Polish Falcons scored three runs in the seventh inning to lose out to the St. Ann's A. team last evening on Hetzel field in an Industrial League fray. Final count was 10-9.

Going into the last half of the seventh, the "Falcons" were ahead, 9-7. Manager Scordia replaced Tony Cauti with "Rabbit" Palumbo on the mound, figuring that Palumbo's speed would get the Falcons in the growing darkness.

But Palumbo failed in the task. After the Falcons scored one run, here were runners on first and second. DeRocque and Palumbo tried for the runner at third and failed, filling the bags. The next batter hit to the pitcher and a runner was forced at the plate. Palumbo struck out Windsor but Beutel got his third hit of the game to score the winning runs.

Tony Cauti pitched six innings for the "Falcons." Palumbo was the losing hurler. Both Beutel and Tomaszewski hit home runs for the Falcons while Orliola had two doubles and a single for St. Ann's and "Lou" Sassi had two out of two.

Eloquent Nonsense

- D. The U. S. is "under no obligation to assist other parties in building up military establishments for use in their overseas territories."
- C. The collective self-defense portions of the Pact are to be invoked only in case of an "armed" attack "by one state upon another."
- D. Even in that event, the Pact "does not commit any of the parties to declare war."
- F. The Pact "does not . . . impair the full authority of Congress to declare war."
- G. The principle of collective self-defense "would not apply to any of the overseas territories outside the North Atlantic area."

The question promptly comes to mind—if it is true that the Pact does not bind the United States to any of the above—THEN WHAT DOES IT BIND US TO WHICH IS SUFFICIENTLY WORTH WHILE TO MAKE THE OTHER ATLANTIC-AREA NATIONS WANT TO GO INTO IT WITH US?

The answer to this question goes to the crux of the matter. Obviously, regardless of what the Senate Committee says, the other Atlantic Pact states believe that the Pact WILL commit us on these very subjects.

Otherwise, from their point of view, the Atlantic Pact would be nothing but a very bitter joke.

Innumerable instances of double-talk occur in the Report. One was quoted just above—the reference to "the full authority of Congress to declare war." This is an ingenious piece of deceptive writing. The question never has been the "full" authority of Congress to declare war—but the "exclusive" authority, which is a cat of a wholly different breed.

Several other instances of this sort might be cited. However, the whole Senate Committee's argument really turns on a quibble. The Report deals solely with a minimum statement of WHAT THE LETTER OF THE PACT'S PROVISIONS REQUIRE. Nowhere does the Committee discuss the much broader and more important subject of WHAT COMMITMENTS ARE IMPLIED BY U. S. ACCEPTANCE OF THE BASIC PRINCIPLE OF THE PACT—THE PRINCIPLE OF COLLECTIVE ACTION IN THE ATLANTIC AREA.

But even the writers of the Report could not quite bring themselves to stand on their own case that the Pact binds Uncle Sam to do nothing which he might not otherwise voluntarily choose to do, if there were no such Pact.

The most labored argument is that concerning the circumstances in which we might be asked to go to the defense of some of our proposed Atlantic Area partners.

In this field, the Report blandly takes both sides of the questions involved. It first says that collective-defense clauses would come into effect "only" in case of an armed attack being launched on one of the parties. It further limits this concept by ruling out "an incident created by irresponsible groups of individuals" as sufficient to lead to the so-called automatic war.

But then it destroys all the effectiveness of these clean-cut reservations by going on to suggest that "if a (purely internal) revolution were aided and abetted by an outside power such assistance might possibly be considered an armed attack."

The effect of this self-contradiction is to leave the whole question of when, under the Pact, a nation has been "attacked" and therefore entitled to aid from its allies, entirely subject to the constructions and interpretations to be put upon that delicate question by those who happen to be in charge of American foreign affairs, when and if the situation arises.

AND THAT'S NO WAY TO WRITE A TREATY! NOR RATIFY IT, EITHER!

On the question of whether the Pact will change the Constitutional provisions stating which branch of our government has power to declare war, the Report gets into a veritable mare's nest of contradiction and negation.

As noted above, it starts out on the theory that the exclusive responsibility of declaring war, placed by the Constitution squarely on the shoulders of Congress, is left there unmodified by the terms of the Atlantic Pact.

But, as also noted above, it slides and slips at once on this question, by insisting only that Congress will still have the power, dodging completely whether Congress will still have it EXCLUSIVELY—that is, whether the Pact will give a President a power which he does not and cannot have under the Constitution, power to declare war, or jump into war, independently of Congress.

Instead of answering this point, which is fundamental, the Report merely muddies the water beyond any hope of clarity.

It lays the groundwork for an analogy which is wholly improper—completely illogical, on the one hand; and supremely dangerous on the other.

The Report presents the argument that, because the President has power under the Constitution, as Commander in Chief, to repel an invasion into U. S. soil without waiting permission or sanction from Congress, by analogy under the Pact (regardless of its specific terms) he would automatically have that same authority in the event of an invasion anywhere in the territory embraced by the Pact.

For this specious argument to be presented, and for the writers of the Report then to try to gloss it over by saying that the Atlantic Pact "does not increase or change" the nation's distribution of war-making powers—this is an insult to intelligence.

In summary, the Report is not what it ought to be—not an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the commitments which are included or excluded by the Atlantic Pact.

Nor is it a binding and official statement of "reservations" which the U. S. Senate proposes to make in connection with ratification of the Pact—reservations which thereafter will become part and parcel of the Atlantic Pact so far as the United States is concerned.

Instead of being either of these two things, the Report is simply a political document—a fraudulent, doubletalking piece of political salesmanship.

Those who take it seriously are being hoodwinked.

Those who examine it carefully, who find out for themselves how tricky and shallow it is, will undoubtedly decide it to be the best political slogan yet discovered warning the American people to "stop, look and listen" before climbing on board this disaster express!

More Smiles per Gallon with Dynaflo Drive

White sidewall tires, as illustrated, available at extra cost.

THERE'S the smile when you slip the selector lever into Driving notch—and realize that's all there is to do.

There's the smile when you swing smoothly up to cruising speed without halt or check or break of stride.
There's the smile at traffic lights when you halt, wait, then move away with never a thought about shifting.

But the broadest grin of all comes at the end of a long day's drive and you find you've covered more miles more easily. Even your treadle-foot — so likely to become tired and cramped maintaining an even speed in direct-drive cars—appreciates the fluid ease of Dynaflo.

For Dynaflo Drive† is not merely a new transmission. It's a new experience — a new luxury in driving.
In ten minutes you are handling it like a veteran — in two days you wouldn't be without it.

Small wonder, then, that Dynaflo is the drive with which all new developments in transmissions are compared.

Not merely "something better," it is something entirely new, the first exciting chapter in a whole new book.

Go learn for yourself how abundantly rich in pleasure every gallon becomes when you have Dynaflo.

SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

By JOE ELBERSON

Unfortunate start . . . something happened shortly after the arrival of the day-old pheasant chicks of the Bristol and Edgely clubs, and several birds were lost, but through the untiring efforts of George Bintliff, Sr., the problem was overcome. Today (they're now 11 days old) the little pheasants are already showing feather growth on their wings and they're completely adjusted to their home.

Predators and bounties . . . at its January meeting the Pennsylvania Game Commission agreed to test the effectiveness in the employment of trappers as a supplement to the bounty system to control the population of predators by hiring eight men, to be paid on a per diem basis.

In other words, the Commission obviously recognized the need for thinning out the fox population and other predator populations. At present there is a $4.00 bounty on both the gray and the red fox. But at the April meeting of the Commission it was agreed to remove the bounty on the red fox and retain it on the gray fox only, after July 31, 1949, since "reports indicate that the population of some species of predators is considerably lower than it was several years ago, and it is now believed that greater damage is being done by great horned owls and goshawks."

The eight salaried trappers will no doubt cut down on the number of gray foxes, goshawks, owls and weasels.

Bristol meets . . . next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the June meeting of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association will be held in the meeting room of the American Legion Post Home on Radcliffe street. All members are asked to attend, and all interested sportsmen have a cordial invitation to be on hand.

Federation notes . . . delegates from 14 clubs were on hand in Doylestown Monday evening when the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs held its June meeting. Among the business transacted was the adoption of a resolution protesting the Game Commission's advertised intent of removing the bounty on red foxes.

Game Protector LeRoy Stachhouse reported the possibility of a longer migratory waterfowl season this fall and an increased daily bag limit on ducks.

Fish Warden Harry Cole reported an additional 400 trout stocked in Cook's Creek on May 31st. There were 1700 rainbows, up to 15 inches, and 1700 brookies, up to 14 inches.

Delegates from the following clubs were at the meeting: Branch Valley, Bristol, Bucks County, Edgely, Hilltown, Langhorne, Morrisville, New Hope, Newportville Rod & Gun, Palletown, Springtown, Mumhauersville, Delaware Valley and Conestoga.

President Charlie Wetherill who was in charge of the meeting reported that 500 day-old pheasant chicks are now being raised by the inmates of the Eastern State Penitentiary at Gratersford for the Bucks County Federation.

Newportville meets . . . the Newportville Rod & Gun Club will hold its next meeting this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the club house on Haunted Lane. Activities listed in the meeting notice include fishing, shooting and a white flyer shoot. The shoot, open to the public, will start at 1:30 p. m.

Nice ride, but . . . on Monday evening Harry Bosler and I learned from Harry Cole that Cook's Creek was recently restocked with trout. And even though Warden Coles warned that most of them had probably already been taken out, we decided to try it at the first opportunity. Tuesday evening we drove the 45 miles to the stream. The fish were there. They were rising in every pool as far as the eye could see. But they must have been in a teasing or a playful mood. They wouldn't strike anything we offered them. At nine o'clock we quit. Result: two suckers caught two suckers.

JEFFERSON SLUGS OUT WIN OVER 2ND WARD

Jefferson A. C. and Second Ward were slow getting started last evening in their Bristol Softball League game on Memorial Park field but towards the end of the game both teams were slugging the ball to all corners of the field. Jefferson turned out to be the winning team with the final score, 13-10.

The defeat knocked Second Ward out of first place in the loop and gave the idle Tullytown A. C. top notch position.

Although both were hit hard, "Mike" Angelo, Second Ward, and "Buster" Monachello, of the winners, managed to stay on the mound until the finish.

Gene Barbeta had three hits out of four for Second Ward while G. Garaballa had three out of five for Jefferson. Barbeta had a home run with the bases bare in the third. Angelo's bad inning was the last.

half of the sixth when he walked three batters in a row after two were out and both Ciotti and Garaballa hit doubles.

EDGELY A. C. PULLS BIG LEAGUE UPSET

After losing seven straight contests, Edgely A. C. pulled one of the biggest upsets in years last evening as it defeated the West Bristol A. C., 9-5, on Memorial Park field. It was the first loss of the season for the West Bristol team and dropped them into a deadlock with VOLT Texaco for the leadership of the Bristol Baseball League, a position held by West Bristol since the start of the season.

It was "Johnny" Pindar who toed the slab for the Edgelyites against the West Bristol team and he succeeded in holding Manager Jim Ellis' team to eight hits.

Edgely had nine hits off Ritter, the West Bristol hurler, and scored a trio of tallies in both the sixth and seventh innings to clinch the verdict.

An error, triple by Pindar, and singles by Adams and "Easy" Mama scored the trio of runs in the sixth while the three in the seventh were made on hits by Ritter, Polyak, and Pindar and an error.

FIREMEN EXPECT HUGE TURNOUT FOR BIG PARADE

Sixty-Six Companies Have Accepted Invitation To Participate

$1500 IN CASH PRIZES

More Than 20 Bands Are Expected To Be In The Line of March

PERKASIE, June 10—The communities of Perkaskie and Sellersville will be joint hosts this evening and tomorrow, to the Bucks County Firemen's Association upon the occasions of the annual meeting and the annual parade. The meeting will be held this evening and the parade tomorrow.

The business session will be held in Sell-Perk high school on Friday evening. Both the Firemen's group and the County Ladies' Auxiliary will hold their annual sessions in different rooms of the big school building.

Highlighting the business session will be the election of officers. William Stackhouse, president of the Association for many years, declined re-election and at the quarterly meeting in March two candidates were named for the post. The candidates are Lloyd Crouthamel, of the Dublin Company and Ralph K. Wassner of the Chalfont Company.

John J. Laughlin, deputy chief of the Philadelphia Bureau of Fire will be the speaker.

James Schatz, Perkaskie police officer, who is chairman of the parade committee this morning said that 66 fire companies had accepted invitations to participate in the parade. "This means," said Schatz, "that there will be at least 100 pieces of apparatus in line."

In addition to fire companies and ladies auxiliaries there will be more than twenty bands, the Bucks County Rescue Squad and the Bucks-Mont riding club. According to estimates there will be between 2500 and 3000 paraders in the line of march.

Seven of the more than 66 fire companies that have accepted invitation come from New Jersey. Many Montgomery county companies will be here and Pen Argyl too has accepted an invitation.

HERE AND THERE IN BUCKS COUNTY TOWNS

Activities of Interest To All in The Various Communities

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

Eleven young women were presented diplomas at the 23rd annual commencement at Holmquist School New Hope, Monday. Presiding at the exercises was Charles Johnson, headmaster of the school.

Dr. Blanche Norton, who has been a member of the faculty since the beginning of the school, gave the principal address.

Diplomas were presented by Mr. Johnson and Miss Louise Lee, dean of the school.

Dr. J. Edward Smith, supervising principal of Doylestown school, has reported on the census as recently completed by Mrs. Frank X. Shelley. It reveals 1,227 children ranging in age from one year to 18, born here since 1930.

Mrs. Shelley, who practically completed the census, with the exception of making a few more calls to homes on persons who were not in, reports the banner year for babies was 1947 when 109 were born.

Dr. Smith, who said the total number will be somewhere around 1,234, including those born this year, reported that evidently Doylestown is having a baby boom.

SUNDAY MEETING

Donna Antonette Grandi Lodge, No. 1634, will hold a special meeting, Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

At the trial of 11 American Communists, John Gates, a defendant, admitted having lied under oath three times, but insisted the ends had justified the untruths.

Whittaker Chambers, at the perjury trial of Alger Hiss, named the five Government employees he said had given him documents to be turned over to Soviet agents. The prosecution introduced witnesses to support Mr. Chambers' testimony and an FBI report indicating the probable defense of Mr. Hiss.

Evidence that this country's counter-espionage might have led into the Soviet Embassy was indicated in a secret FBI report read at the espionage trial of Judith Coplon.

Anyone favoring the destruction of our form of government ought not teach in the schools, President Truman said.

Army authorities in Washington have denied clearance to Chairman Clapp of the Tennessee Valley Authority to carry out an assignment for which the United States Military Government in Germany had specifically requested him. Army Intelligence, which classified Mr. Clapp as "unemployable," said further comment must come from him. Mr. Clapp denied any knowledge of the request or refusal.

An event of vast importance to the residents of this and surrounding communities took place on Wednesday, June 1st, when Life Scout Calvin Morrison of Troop 69, Croydon, and Joan Anderson of Girl Scout Troop No. 7, Croydon, picked for their excellence in the scouting movement, joined David Sklar, president, Milton Richter, vice-president, and Samuel Silbert, general manager of the Safe Food Markets, in breaking ground for the new super market they plan to build in Croydon.

The Safe Food Market interests plan to erect the largest, most modern food market and shoppers' center, with 10 complete departments under one roof to make it a one-stop shopping center. It will be the latest design, with parking space for more than 200 automobiles, they state.

Mr. Sklar, when asked, stated that the most modern methods will be employed for shopping comfort, with the usual staff of schooled and efficient employees. In a statement Sklar said: "It has always been the policy of the Safe Food Markets, its officers and purchasing agents, to bring to the public the largest variety of nationally-advertised brands and the highest quality food products at the lowest possible prices, and it has always been the policy of the Safe Food Markets to be the leaders in the field wherever they now operate. Our new market in Croydon promises to be the most outstanding institution of its kind in Pennsylvania."

ALFRED B. HENNESSY DIES SUDDENLY TODAY

DOYLESTOWN, June 10—Justice of the Peace Alfred B. Hennessy, a retired Bell Telephone Co. official with 43 years of service with that company, died suddenly this morning at the home of his son, Alfred Blaker Hennessy, Jr., at Pontiac, Mich., where he had been enjoying a visit. Mr. Hennessy was 65.

The community of Doylestown and entire Bucks-Montgomery counties area were shocked this morning when word of the sudden death, the result of a heart attack, reached here by telephone.

Mr. Hennessy and grandson, Richard Hennessy, were in Doylestown on business.

ELOQUENT NONSENSE

The lengthy Report of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, submitted as part of its recommendation for approval of the Atlantic Pact, is about as absurd and illogical as any public document ever released.

If this were a minor issue, the nonsense would make little difference.

But this Report covers a subject of vast world importance. It calls for tying Uncle Sam into a transoceanic alliance totally different from anything ever tried before, for purposes made more mysterious than ever by the Report, with liabilities harder to understand than ever—and binding this nation to the alliance for the next twenty years, come what may. (As the Report itself states, "There is no provision for individual members to withdraw prior to that time.")

If for no other reason than to prevent future arguments and misunderstandings, the Report ought to have been crystal clear. It ought to have had no ambiguities, no self-contradictions, no political double-talk. But it is full of these.

It presents numerous "reservations" to the Atlantic Pact—not as they should be, definite reservations incorporated in the Pact itself, but as mere "interpretations" having no definite standing. They are nothing more than neat "alibis" which those can use who privately disapprove the Atlantic Pact, but hesitate to vote against it.

If these "reservations" are to be taken seriously, then the Pact itself is largely meaningless.

Consider the list of points where the Senate Committee says the Pact does NOT bind the United States. Here are the principal fields where the Report says this nation does not have to implement the pact with laws or action:

- The U. S. is not obligated to "take specific legislative action" in the fields of "civil rights, the reduction of tariffs, and similar matters."
- It is not committed "to contribute toward a long-term recovery program for Europe."
- In military contributions from U. S., "there is no specific obligation as to the timing, nature and extent of assistance to be given by any party."

Juvenile Delinquency Is A Menace to Society

"Juvenile delinquency is a menace and a threat to the future of our society, and has passed far beyond the stage where it is a community problem to where it has now reached the proportions of a national problem," the Rev. George E. Roswell, rector of St. James P. E. Church, told Rotarians when he addressed them at the Elks' Home yesterday afternoon.

"We must somehow or other impress on the parents that children are taught far more effectively by example rather than by precept, if we are to conquer the problem," the speaker continued.

"Obedience to the laws and the practice of Christian living must be shown to our youth to be privileges rather than compulsory duties."

"The real root of the problem lays in the home. Parents are to a very large degree responsible for the juvenile delinquency of today."

"Broken homes resulting from the recent war also added to the problem, as has the introduction of jazz music, thriller motion pictures and comic strips showing shootings and killings, etc.," Rev. Roswell declared.

Guests were present for the meeting from Morrisville and Bensalem, with Ray Sobatski acting as chairman.

EXPECT LARGE CROWD AT CELEBRATION HERE

Mill Street Frolic Likely To Exceed V-E Day Event

ALL AGES ARE INVITED

General belief is that the celebration on Bristol borough's new parking lot on the evening of June 16th will surpass the spontaneous demonstration which occurred on Mill street on V-E Day.

Although the affair of a few years ago included music, dancing and a gala time, the event of next Thursday will call for these and more—a show staged by the Sleepy Hollow Gang and free cats.

Men, women, and children of all ages, and from all communities for miles about, are expected to throng the parking lot. They will come by buses, bicycles, afoot and in private automobiles. For those choosing the latter means of transportation, ample parking space will be provided on the section of the parking lot not reserved for the entertainment, or on nearby streets.

Bristol has long been working toward an improved parking lot. The plot has been used for some time, but just recently has surfaced taking place. It is an event worth celebrating, and residents will "whoop it up" on Thursday.

SCOUTS TO CONDUCT JAMBOREE IN 1950 AT VALLEY FORGE

Troops To Come From All Over America To Big Event

EXPECT OVER 30,000

Event Will Climax Two-Year Crusade of Scouts

The Boy Scouts of America has selected Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, for its second National Scout Jamboree in 1950, according to word received by the Bucks County Council, Boy Scouts of America, whose headquarters are at Doylestown. The selection of the site was announced by Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout Executive of the organization.

Over 30,000 Boy Scouts from every state and all U. S. territories will camp together from June 30 to July 6, 1950 on the site notable as the winter encampment of General George Washington and his Continental Army from Dec. 19, 1777 to June 19, 1778.

Valley Forge Park is owned, maintained and preserved by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. An invitation to hold the Jamboree there was received from Governor James H. Duff by the Boy Scouts of America and accepted by its National Executive Board, Dr. Schuck announced.

The National Jamboree will be the climax of the Boy Scouts' two-year Crusade to "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty."

Gov. Duff's invitation to the Boy Scouts was accepted after a dozen sites in all sections of the United States were inspected by the Engineering Service of the Boy Scouts of America.

Gov. Duff's invitation addressed to Dr. Schuck follows: "On behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Valley Forge Park Commission, I wish to extend to the Boy Scouts of America a cordial invitation to hold their Jamboree at Valley Forge Park during the summer of 1950 at such time as their executives may elect."

"I am fully acquainted with the Boy Scouts' program for the year 1950—to 'Crusade to Strengthen the Arm of Liberty'—and it was my privilege last February in an address at Gettysburg to sponsor this crusade for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I can visualize no more appropriate location for its climax than Valley Forge where the sacrifice and training were undergone on the basis of which our heritage of liberty was won."

Exchange Club Conditions Field for Aeromodelers

The Bristol Exchange Club, sponsors of the "Aeromodelers," has approved of a donation of funds to condition the ground recently purchased by the Bristol School Board near Route 13, for a permanent flying site. Work will soon get under way by the Bucks County Construction Co.

Through the efforts of Thomas Stricker and Lester Michael such a thing was made possible. Aeromodeler members are very anxious to use the new field, and a public demonstration will be given as soon as the new field is made usable.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

By Walter Klerans

(Distributed by International News Service)

Mr. Chambers is attempting to tell us what makes American Communies tick but it still sounds like loose balance wheels and no pendulum.

Vishinsky and Gromyko can make Communism sound errorless but with the American brand it comes out mostly eratic, erratic and eroding.

In fact the propaganda spreaders in our capitalistic cities probably wouldn't be entrusted with the fertilizer spreader on a collectivist farm.

One way to test this theory would be to send Stalin a cable reading "We have a number of red-hot Reds here... how many will you take, freight paid?"

The answer probably would read "What are you trying to do... wreck Communism here?"

Anyway Stalin may be guilty of a lot of things but I don't recall him ever writing dirty little pieces for soiled little papers.

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Confesses Murdering Divorcee and Son

Philadelphia—A 29-year-old man confessed today, police said, to the fatal bludgeoning of a brunette divorcee and her nine-year-old son with a baseball bat.

Detective Capt. James Kelly, head of the homicide squad, said Robert Gemberling allegedly admitted the beatings this morning after several hours questioning because he wanted to "get even" with the woman.

The victims were Mrs. Jean Mills, 32, who died early today from a beating about the head, and her son, Michael Lubowski. They were found last night on a bed in the woman's apartment, after other tenants smelled gas from three open jets in the kitchen range.

Hoffman Threatens to Quit Unless He Gets Funds

Washington—Foreign Aid Chief Paul Hoffman today resumed his running battle with Congress over Marshall Plan costs after threatening to quit his post if not given enough funds for an effective aid program. Hoffman is asking Congress for three and a half billion dollars for 10½ months of the next fiscal year. He declared that this represents minimum requirements to maintain the present momentum of the European recovery effort.

New Radium and X-Ray Treatment for Cancer

EDITORIALS OVER THE AIR

"Radio" stations have now been granted the right to say their say on public questions. The Federal Communications Commission has modified its long-standing position, set forth in the "Mayflower Decision," that they must be silent on "partisan" issues. It has decided they may take sides provided they also carry a "reasonably balanced" presentation of opposing views.

This is a victory for the National Association of Broadcasters, which has insisted for years that the commission's ruling was a denial of station owners' constitutional rights. But it may represent a defeat for their own best interests in the long run.

Radio stations deal in information and entertainment. It seems reasonable to argue that they should be free, as newspapers are, to advocate political causes.
But the conclusion is based on a dubious premise because radio stations, unlike newspapers must be and are licensed by a government agency.

Given the right to editorialize, can station owners be expected to forget the partisan views of members of the government agency that grants licenses?

The new ruling is now a complete departure from the commission's former stand. There is an
"if" that can lead to difficulties, for a station failing to meet the commission's concept of reasonable balance can lose its license.
Moreover, what would happen if the commission should seek nationwide balance between Republican and Democratic station owners.

There are all kinds of possibilities for trouble in the new ruling.
Still, it may be that the bad potentialities will not appear and the net will be good.

A handsome man in a tall silk hat and scarlet coat moves to the microphone. The lights go out everywhere except in the center ring now flooded with brilliance.
In the dim tiers of seats the multitude is hushed. A baritone voice fills the great circus tent.

"And now, ladies and gentlemen, I give you, direct from Paris the in-tre-pid—the in-vin-ci-ble—the in-com-pa-ra-ble—the in-credi-ble GERALDOS!" The Ger-aldos, said the program, "twice daily shake dice with death."

Up to the high trapeze they climb, barelegged, barefooted, dressed in bits of shining white.
Now high above the tanbark—no net intervening—they go into their act. On the single trapeze he swings her up, over and down.
By her hands he swings her and by her feet. Or again, she catches his ankles as he swings by his hands.

Another evolution begins. They swing like a pendulum.

But in Baltimore the Geraldos fell from their trapeze. Rene's ankle is broken. Madeline's back injury is serious. Intrepid, almost incredible they are. But — like other human beings in other ways
— even the Geraldos are not infallible.

and its agencies. The Valley Forge Park Commission will make available the facilities it has at its disposal during the period of preparative Board accept this invitation, the Valley Forge Park Commission will be designated as the coordinating agency of the Commonwealth with which you should develop your detailed plans in so far as they involve the Commonwealth."

Boy Scout officials announced that the Jamboree Camp will probably occupy 600 of the 2,933 acres in Valley Forge Park. This would provide 32 sectional camps for a maximum of 40,320 Scouts and adult leaders and a headquarters camp for 40 leaders. Valley Forge Park is 20 miles northwest of Philadelphia and seven miles west of Norristown.

The first National Scout Jamboree was held in a 450 acre tent city on both sides of the Potomac River at Washington, D. C., from June 30 to July 9, 1937 at the invitation of President Franklin D.
Roosevelt. It brought together

27,232 Scouts and Leaders whose fees paid for the expenses of the entire Jamboree. President Roosevelt not only visited the huge Jamboree Camp but took part in the "Stand Still Parade" in his honor on Constitution Avenue. The Scout campers lined the entire length of the historic avenue and were reviewed by the President as he drove between their lines.

Boy Scouts of twenty-four other nations were guests of the encampment.

VOLTZ NINE MOVES INTO A DEADLOCK FOR FIRST PLACE

Voltz-Texaco moved into a deadlock with West Bristol for first place in the Bristol Suburban League with a 6-2 win over the Hibernalians last evening on Leedom's field.

The tilt was a scoreless hurling duel between "Bill" McGerr, for the gammen, and Joe McDevitt, for the Hibs, until the fifth frame when the Voltz-men scored three times.

It was Dave Morrell who started the rally with a single to left. He was forced at second by Dave Ludwig. Ludwig stole second and crossed the plate on Dewsnap's hit to left. Dewsnap eventually scored when Sid Purcell rapped a double over the rightfielder's head. Pappaterra's long single to center counted Purcell.

The Hibs got a run back on McDevitt's hit to center, an error by Pappaterra on Cahill's grounder, and a hit by "Johnny" Rodgers. McGerr fanned the next batter and purposely passed Cooper to load the base. Dolan popped up to first to end the inning.

Earl Cross gave the gammen a run in the sixth when he socked a tremendous blow to left-center for a home run.

McDevitt was driven from the mound in the next inning and "Norm" Hetherington finished.

ST. JAMES' DEFEATS ST. LUKE'S; SCORE, 8-5

A combination of bad breaks and errors lost a ball game for St. Luke last evening as St. James scored 2 unearned runs and 2 more on a misjudged fly ball that went for a home run with a man on second.

Both teams had nine hits with Schwank and Meyerle getting 2 hits for the losers and DeLong and Norman Vandegrift obtaining 2 base knocks for the winners. The game was loosely played with fluke hits dropping in for singles all evening.

The fielding gem of the game was a back-handed stop of a ground ball by Tranter to save 2 St. Luke runs from scoring in the fifth inning.

SIX RUNS IN SIXTH GIVE FLANNERY'S WIN

PENNDLE, June 10 — Six runs in the sixth gave Flannery's Eagles a 9-6 victory over the Lewis Lodge of Elks last evening in a Bristol Suburban League game on the Foundel field.

The six tallies were scored on two walks, hits by Tom Purcell, Frank Purcell, Vic Rockhill and Clint Purcell and an error.

Prior to the six-run flare-up, the Elks were out in front by a 5-3 lead and Pollard seemed to coasting to victory. But the sixth frame proved fatal and cost the Bristol team the victory.

"Tommy" Purcell had three for three to lead the batters of the game while "Wes" Ringgold, for the losers, had a double and triple. The winners had ten hits.

MANHATTAN DEFEATS 3M'S BY SCORE OF 8-2

Ray Pierandozzi's relief pitching helped the Manhattan Soap team to beat the 3 M's last evening on the Hunter-Wilson field on an Industrial Softball League game.

Due to the absence of its regular starting pitcher, Manhattan appeared weakened but Quinn and Pierandozzi ably filled the position and set back their opponents with five hits.

Both "Angie" Spinelli and Gallagher came out of their batting slumps by getting two out of four. One of Gallagher's blows was a homer in the fourth with Ralph Kraatz on base.

One of Gallagher's boys was homer in the fourth with Ralph Kratz on base.

Third Anniversary Is Marked by Rainbow Girls

The third anniversary of Bristol Assembly, No. 22, Order of Rainbow Girls, was observed Wednesday evening at a dinner held in the social hall of Bristol Methodist Church.

Chicken salad platters were served to 60 members and guests by members of the advisory board.

The dining room was decorated with ribbons of various colors, attached to the wall, representing a rainbow. At the officers table, yellow roses and pink candles formed the centerpiece. Favors were book markers with the Lord's Prayer inscribed on a square attached to a tassel. The other tables were decorated with vari-colored roses.

Mrs. George Bailey, Jr., presented the assembly with a decorated cake. Installation followed the dinner. Mrs. Edgar Behr, mother advisor, introduced the following installing officers: installing marshal, Ruth Ellen Cox; installing worthy advisor, Louise Thorne; installing chaplain, Mary Ellen Swan; installing recorder, Hester Wright; installing musician, Ann Ardrey.

Guests introduced were: Mrs. Elizabeth Ludwig, Philadelphia, deputy of district No. 7; Miss Mary Grace, Ambler, mother advisor of Martha B. Mathers Assembly, Abington, and state publicity director; the worthy advisor of Abington Assembly, past worthy advisor of Bristol Assembly, and the past mother advisor, Mrs. Howard Combs.

The following officers were installed: worthy advisor, Alverta McGarity; worthy associate advisor, Bessie Alcorn; Charity, Alice Nemec; Hope, Alma Rathke; Faith, Barbara Schaum; chaplain, Gloria Jones; drill leader, Mary Vetter; Love, Janet Brownlee; religion, Barbara Lynn; nature, Marguerite Tyler; immortality, Constance New.

Fidelity, Patricia Straub; patriotism, Katherine Nagel; service, Shirley Hall; confidential observer, Joan Hart; outer observer, "Betty" Stockwell; musician, Ann Ardrey; flag-bearer, Claire Culbertson.

Louise Thorne, retiring worthy advisor, was escorted through a ceremony to the altar while Hester Wright and Alverta McGarity sang "In the Heart of a Rose." She was presented with red roses from seven "bow" girls. Her mother, Mrs. Lester D. Thorne, pinned a past officers' jewel on Louise. The new worthy advisor, Alverta McGarity, was escorted through a candlelight ceremony, passing the stations of Faith, Hope and Charity, receiving a handkerchief doll at each station symbolizing that station. She also received a bouquet of roses as Shirley Hall sang to her "We love you truly." Mrs. Combs was escorted to the altar where Louise Thorne presented her with a past mother advisor's pin. All officers received merit bars. Each bar represents their service in the Assembly. Nine bars complete a set. Before the closing march, Mary Vetter gave the tribute to the rainbow flag.

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

WACO AIR FORCE BASE, Texas, June 10 — Robert D. Delise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Delise, 304 Dorrance street, Bristol, Pa., has recently been promoted to the grade of sergeant in the U. S. Air Force at Waco Air Force Base, Texas, according to word received from Colonel John T. Sprague, Commanding Officer of the Waco AF installation. A graduate of Bristol High School, Sergeant Delise worked as a chemist's assistant for the Superior Zinc Corp., Bristol before enlisting in the Air Force on Nov. 19, 1948. After completing basic training at Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls, Texas, the Sergeant was assigned to Waco AFB.

NEW YORK — (INS) — Scientists say even rust can be put to good use — as insulation in motors and generators. Westinghouse engineers report a thin uniform coat of rust can be applied to steel to resist moisture and burnout.

HILL FIELD, Utah. — (INS) — An average of 100,000 tons of freight is shipped to Alaska from Hill Field each week by motor truck. Transportation Chief Joseph W. Chase said two private companies give ten day service on the 3,500 mile trip.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

NEARLY every housewife has been—or will be—confronted at some time in her career with the task of preparing dinner for a large number of people. If, in addition, she is also anxious to display her culinary skills by serving a meal featuring a rare combination of flavors, the job is doubly complicated.

For such an occasion, and bearing in mind that reasonable economy is always a welcome guest at such times, the A & P Service for Home makers suggests filing away this recipe for stuffed pork shoulder for future reference. Of course, by reducing the ingredients proportionately, it may also be used for a normal sized family.

Have a four-pound picnic pork shoulder boned and sew it on three sides before preparing the stuffing. To make this, combine one cup of bread crumbs, two tablespoons of melted fat, ten cooked and diced prunes, three tart apples, quartered, one teaspoon of grated lemon rind, one-half teaspoon of brown sugar, one-quarter teaspoon of cinnamon, plus salt and pepper.

Before filling opening with this stuffing, season pork well with pepper and salt. Then stuff and sew up remaining opening. Cook in an uncovered roasting pan in moderate (350° F.) oven, allowing 35 or 40 minutes to the pound. This should serve 12 adequate portions.

As an appetizer, serve chilled pineapple juice cocktails. With the main course, mashed sweet potato, caramel and a salad of grapefruit and pimiento are appropriate. A dessert of apple tapioca pudding and suitable beverages will provide a fitting climax for this fine meal.

ST. ANN'S LOSES TO POLISH FALCONS BY 10-9 SCORE

TRENTON, June 10 — The Polish Falcons scored three runs in the seventh inning to lose out to the St. Ann's A. A. team last evening on Hefel field in an Industrial League play. Final count was 10-9.

Going into the last half of the seventh, the "Edsies" were ahead, 9-7. Manager Georgia replaced Tony Cauti with "Rabbit" Palumbo on the mound, figuring that Palumbo's speed would get the Falcons in the growing darkness.

But Palumbo failed in the task. After the Falcons scored one run, there were runners on first and second. DeBoscher and Palumbo tried for the runner at third and failed, filling the bags. The next batter hit to the pitcher and a runner was forced at the plate. Palumbo struck out Windsor but Beutel got his third hit of the game to score the winning run.

Tony Cauti pitched six innings for the "Edsies." Palumbo was the losing hurler. Both Beutel and Tomaszewski hit home runs for the Falcons while Orloff had two doubles and a single for St. Ann's and "Lou" Sassi had two out of two.

Eloquent Nonsense

- D. The U. S. is "under no obligation to assist other parties in building up military establishments for use in their overseas territories."
- C. The collective self-defense portions of the Pact are to be invoked only in case of an "armed" attack "by one state upon another."
- D. Even in that event, the Pact "does not commit any of the parties to declare war."
- F. The Pact "does not . . . impair the full authority of Congress to declare war."
- G. The principle of collective self-defense "would not apply to any of the overseas territories outside the North Atlantic area."

The question promptly comes to mind—If it is true that the Pact does not bind the United States to any of the above—THEN WHAT DOES IT BIND US TO WHICH IS SUFFICIENTLY WORTH WHILE TO MAKE THE OTHER ATLANTIC-AREA NATIONS WANT TO GO INTO IT WITH US?

The answer to this question goes to the crux of the matter. Obviously, regardless of what the Senate Committee says, the other Atlantic-Pact states believe that the Pact WILL commit us on these very subjects.

Otherwise, from their point of view, the Atlantic Pact would be nothing but a very bitter joke.

Innumerable instances of double-talk occur in the Report. One was quoted just above—the reference to "the full authority of Congress to declare war." This is an ingenious piece of deceptive writing. The question never has been the "full" authority of Congress to declare war—but the "exclusive" authority, which is a cat of a wholly different breed.

Several other instances of this sort might be cited. However, the whole Senate Committee's argument really turns on a quibble. The Report deals solely with a minimum statement of WHAT THE LETTER OF THE PACT'S PROVISIONS REQUIRE. Nowhere does the Committee discuss the much broader and more important subject of WHAT COMMITMENTS ARE IMPLIED BY U. S. ACCEPTANCE OF THE BASIC PRINCIPLE OF THE PACT—THE PRINCIPLE OF COLLECTIVE ACTION IN THE ATLANTIC AREA.

But even the writers of the Report could not quite bring themselves to stand on their own case that the Pact binds Uncle Sam to do nothing which he might not otherwise voluntarily choose to do, if there were no such Pact.

The most labored argument is that concerning the circumstances in which we might be asked to go to the defense of some of our proposed Atlantic Area partners.

In this field, the Report blandly takes both sides of the questions involved. It first says that collective-defense clauses would come into effect "only" in case of an armed attack being launched on one of the parties. It further limits this concept by ruling out "an incident created by irresponsible groups of individuals" as sufficient to lead to the so-called automatic war.

But then it destroys all the effectiveness of these clean-cut reservations by going on to suggest that "if a (purely internal) revolution were aided and abetted by an outside power such assistance might possibly be considered an armed attack."

The effect of this self-contradiction is to leave the whole question of when, under the Pact, a nation has been "attacked" and therefore entitled to aid from its allies, entirely subject to the constructions and interpretations to be put upon that delicate question by those who happen to be in charge of American foreign affairs, when and if the situation arises.

AND THAT'S NO WAY TO WRITE A TREATY! NOR RATIFY IT, EITHER!

On the question of whether the Pact will change the Constitutional provisions stating which branch of our government has power to declare war, the Report gets into a veritable mare's nest of contradiction and negation.

As noted above, it starts out on the theory that the exclusive responsibility of declaring war, placed by the Constitution squarely on the shoulders of Congress, is left there unmodified by the terms of the Atlantic Pact.

But, as also noted above, it slides and slips at once on this question, by insisting only that Congress will still have it EXCLUSIVELY—that is, whether the Pact will give a President a power which he does not and cannot have under the Constitution, power to declare war, or jump into war, independently of Congress.

Instead of answering this point, which is fundamental, the Report merely muddies the water beyond any hope of clarity.

It lays the groundwork for an analogy which is wholly improper—completely illogical, on the one hand; and supremely dangerous on the other.

The Report presents the argument that, because the President has power under the Constitution, as Commander in Chief, to repel an invasion into U. S. soil without waiting permission or sanction from Congress, by analogy under the Pact (regardless of its specific terms) he would automatically have that same authority in the event of an invasion anywhere in the territory embraced by the Pact.

For this specious argument to be presented, and for the writers of the Report then to try to gloss it over by saying that the Atlantic Pact "does not increase or change" the nation's distribution of war-making powers—this is an insult to intelligence.

In summary, the Report is not what it ought to be—not an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the commitments which are included or excluded by the Atlantic Pact.

Nor is it a binding and official statement of "reservations" which the U. S. Senate proposes to make in connection with ratification of the Pact—reservations which thereafter will become part and parcel of the Atlantic Pact so far as the United States is concerned.

Instead of being either of these two things, the Report is simply a political document—a fraudulent, doubletalking piece of political salesmanship.

Those who take it seriously are being hoodwinked. Those who examine it carefully, who find out for themselves how tricky and shallow it is, will undoubtedly decide it to be the best political signpost yet discovered warning the American people to "stop, look and listen" before climbing on board this disaster express!

More Smiles per Gallon with Dynaflo Drive

THERE'S the smile when you slip the selector lever into Driving notch—and realize that's all there is to do.

There's the smile when you swing smoothly up to cruising speed without halt or check or break of stride. There's the smile at traffic lights when you halt, wait, then move away with never a thought about shifting.

But the broadest grin of all comes at the end of a long day's drive and you find you've covered more miles more easily. Even your treadle-foot—so likely to become tired and cramped maintaining an even speed in direct-drive cars—appreciates the fluid ease of Dynaflo.

For Dynaflo Drive† is not merely a new transmission. It's a new experience—a new luxury in driving. In ten minutes you are handling it like a veteran—in two days you wouldn't be without it.

Small wonder, then, that Dynaflo is the drive with which all new developments in transmissions are compared.

Not merely "something better," it is something entirely new, the first exciting chapter in a whole new book.

Go learn for yourself how abundantly rich in pleasure every gallon becomes when you have Dynaflo.

Your Buick dealer will be glad to demonstrate—glad to quote delivered prices—glad to talk terms of as fine a deal as you could want.

And you'll find glad surprise in the delivery dates he is now mentioning.

SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

BY JOE ELMERSON

Unfortunate start . . . something happened shortly after the arrival of the day-old pheasant chicks of the Bristol and Edgely clubs, and several birds were lost, but through the untiring efforts of George Bintliff, Sr., the problem was overcome. Today (they're now 11 days old) the little pheasants are already showing feather growth on their wings and they're completely adjusted to their home.

Predators and bounties . . . at its January meeting the Pennsylvania Game Commission agreed to test the effectiveness in the employment of trappers as a supplement to the bounty system on a per diem basis. In other words, the Commission obviously recognized the need for thinning out the fox population and other predator populations.

At present there is a $100 bounty on both the gray and the red fox. But at the April meeting of the Commission it was agreed to remove the bounty on the red fox and retain it on the gray fox only, after July 31, 1949, since "reports indicate that the population of some species of predators is considerably lower than it was several years ago, and it is now believed that greater damage is being done by great horned owls and goshawks."

The eight salaried trappers will no doubt cut down on the number of gray foxes, goshawks, owls and weasels.

Bristol meets . . . next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, the June meeting of the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association will be held in the meeting room of the American Legion Post Home on Radcliffe street. All members are asked to attend, and all interested sportsmen have a cordial invitation to be on hand.

Federation notes . . . delegates from 14 clubs were on hand in Doylestown Monday evening when the Bucks County Federation of Sportsmen's Clubs held its June meeting. Among the business transacted was the adoption of a resolution protesting the Game Commission's advertised intent of removing the bounty on red foxes.

Game Protector LeRoy Stackhouse reported the possibility of a longer migratory waterfowl season this fall and an increased daily bag limit on ducks.

Fish Warden Harry Cole reported an additional 400 trout stocked in Cook's Creek on May 31st. There were 1700 rainbows, up to 15 inches, and 1700 brookies, up to 14 inches.

Delegates from the following clubs were at the meeting: Branch Valley, Bristol, Bucks County, Edgely, Hilltown, Langhorne, Morrisville, New Hope, Newportville Rod & Gun, Piletown, Springtown, Mumbanersville, Delaware Valley and Conestoga.

President Charlie Wetherill who was in charge of the meeting reported that 500 day-old pheasant chicks are now being raised by the inmates of the Eastern State Penitentiary at Gratersford for the Bucks County Federation.

Newportville meets . . . the Newportville Rod & Gun Club will hold its next meeting this Sunday morning at 11 o'clock at the club house on Haunted Lane. Activities listed in the meeting notice include fishing, shooting and a white flyer shoot. The shoot, open to the public, will start at 1:30 p. m.

Nice ride, but . . . on Monday evening Harry Bossler and I learned from Harry Cole that Cook's Creek was recently restocked with trout. And even though Warden Cole warned that most of them had probably already been taken out, we decided to try it at the first opportunity. Tuesday evening we drove the 45 miles to the stream. The fish were there. They were rising in every pool as far as the eye could see. But they must have been in a teasing or a playful mood. They wouldn't strike anything we offered them. At nine o'clock we quit. Result: two suckers caught two suckers.

JEFFERSON SLUGS OUT WIN OVER 2ND WARD

Jefferson A. C. and Second Ward were slow getting started last evening in their Bristol Softball League game on Memorial Park field but towards the end of the game both teams were slugging the ball to all corners of the field. Jefferson turned out to be the winning team with the final score, 13-10.

The defeat knocked Second Ward out of first place in the loop and gave the idle Tullytown A. C. top-notch position.

Although both were hit hard, "Mike" Angelo, Second Ward, and "Buster" Monachello, of the winners, managed to stay on the mound until the finish.

Gene Barbetta had three hits out of four for Second Ward while G. Barbetta had three out of five for Jefferson. Barbetta had a home run with the bases bare in the third.

Angelo's bad inning was the last half of the sixth when he walked three batters in a row after two were out and both Clotti and Garaballa hit doubles.

EDGELY A. C. PULLS BIG LEAGUE UPSET

After losing seven straight contests, Edgely A. C. pulled one of the biggest upsets in years last evening as it defeated the West Bristol A. C., 9-5, on Memorial Park field. It was the first loss of the season for the West Bristol team and dropped them into a deadlock with Voltz, Texaco for the leadership of the Bristol Baseball League, a position held by West Bristol since the start of the season.

It was "Johnny" Pindar who took the slab for the Edgelyites against the West Bristol team and he succeeded in holding Manager Jim Ellis' team to eight hits.

Edgely had nine hits off Rittler, the West Bristol hurler, and scored a trio of tallies in both the sixth and seventh innings to clinch the verdict.

An error, triple by Pindar, and singles by Adams and "Easy" Mama scored the trio of runs in the sixth while the three in the seventh were made on hits by Rittler, Polyak, and Pindar and an error.
